

Career Pathways

Provide opportunities for more specialization in your field of interest. In your pathway of choice, you can gain more expertise and experience in certain topic areas and begin to learn the career-specific skills to prepare for your career.

A/V Technology & Film

Manufacture, sell, design, integrate, operate, and repair audio-visual equipment for venues such as hotels, stadiums and theme parks.

Performing Arts

Play a range of roles in theatrical or musical performances. Work in any aspect of the performing arts industry from production and set design to script writing and vocal instruction.

Printing Technology

Work in a rapidly evolving industry that is advancing with technology. Apply creativity and technical skills to transform text and graphics into finished products.

Journalism & Broadcasting

Gather information, prepare and publish stories for broadcast, online and print publications that inform the public about current issues.

Visual Arts

Use creativity to turn abstract ideas into real-life concepts. Communicate ideas and emotions through visually compelling media such as paintings, sculptures or illustrations.

Telecommunications

Manage sophisticated technology and equipment that communicate and deliver a range of information such as data and video. Assist with installation, maintenance and repair of equipment.

Driving Trends

- ✓ Use of technology and media
- ✓ Opportunities to start your own business
- ✓ Evolution of communication platforms

Skills to Succeed

To have a successful career in the Arts, A/V Technology & Communications Career Cluster, you will need to gain a range of academic, technical and foundational skills. Below are some of the skills and key topic areas necessary to flourish in this Career Cluster.

Foundational Skills

The critical skills for any and all careers, including teamwork, critical thinking, writing, and communications.

Key Topic Areas

For a career in this Career Cluster, you will become familiar with topics including fine arts, education and training, creativity, communications and media, design, computers, and electronics.

PATHWAYS TO COLLEGE & CAREER READINESS

